

Website Disclaimers

Last modified Date: [30-April 2026]

1. Medical & Product Information Disclaimer

The content on this website is provided for general informational purposes only and is not intended to replace or substitute for professional medical advice, diagnosis, treatment, or clinical instruction, nor does it serve as a substitute for the professional judgment of a qualified healthcare professional. Patients should always consult a qualified healthcare professional regarding any medical condition or treatment decision. These products are intended for use by trained healthcare professionals only.

Devices must be used solely for their specific intended purpose as defined in the applicable Instructions for Use (IFU). The Company does not recommend, endorse, or support any off-label use of its devices.

Any product description, image, animation, clinical reference, or scientific citation presented on this website is provided for informational and educational purposes only and does not expand, modify, or replace the intended purpose, indications, contraindications, warnings, precautions, instructions for use, or regulatory status approved or authorized for the relevant product.

Product availability, indications, approvals and/or licenses, regulatory markings, and instructions for use may vary by country or region, and nothing on this website shall be interpreted as a representation that any product is available, approved, licensed, or permitted for marketing or use in any or all jurisdictions.

Illustrations, images, and animations are schematic only and do not replace professional training or review of the applicable IFU and labeling. Prior to using any product, healthcare professionals must review and refer to the applicable Instructions for Use (IFU) and comply with all relevant local regulatory approvals.

2. Warranty Disclaimer & Limitation of Liability

The website and its contents are provided on an “as is” and “as available” basis, except to the extent expressly provided otherwise in a written agreement applicable to the relevant product or in the official product documentation applicable in the relevant jurisdiction.

Products and components of VVT MED INC. (hereinafter: the “Company”) are provided without any express or implied warranties, including, without limitation, any implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, except to the extent such warranties cannot be excluded under applicable law. The Company currently conducts its operations through its wholly owned subsidiary, VVT MED LTD., which is the legal manufacturer of the devices and is located in Israel. For clarity, the identity of the distributor, importer, or licence holder for a particular product may vary depending on the product and the applicable jurisdiction.

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Company shall not be liable, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability, or otherwise, for any direct, indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages arising out of or in connection with: (i) the use, misuse, or reuse of any product; or (ii) reliance upon any information presented on this website.

The Company shall not be liable for any damages resulting from unauthorized modifications, improper maintenance, or use of the products outside the scope of the applicable Instructions for Use (IFU).

Nothing in this disclaimer shall exclude or limit any liability that cannot be excluded or limited under applicable law.

No person or entity is authorized to make any representation or warranty on behalf of the Company, except as expressly set forth in the official product documentation.

The display of any product on this website does not constitute or imply that such product is cleared for marketing in the United States, licensed for sale in Canada, or approved, authorized, or permitted for marketing or use in any other jurisdiction.

3. No Guarantee of Clinical or Commercial Outcomes

Any references on this website to clinical experience, case examples, physician feedback, user adoption, patient outcomes, or commercial performance are provided for illustrative purposes only.

Actual clinical outcomes and commercial results may vary depending on patient characteristics, physician technique, time periods, regulatory environment, and other relevant factors. Such descriptions do not constitute and shall not be construed as a guarantee or assurance of safety, effectiveness, user adoption, reimbursement, commercial success, or any specific outcome in any individual case.

Clinical data and outcomes presented on this website are subject to the specific regulatory approvals and authorized indications applicable in each jurisdiction. To the extent that clinical data are presented on this website, they must be read in conjunction with the applicable Instructions for Use (IFU) and labeling, including, without limitation, the indications, contraindications, warnings, precautions, and limitations applicable to the relevant product.

4. Investor Relations & Forward-Looking Statements Disclaimer

This website may contain forward-looking statements or forward-looking information (collectively, “forward-looking statements”) within the meaning of applicable securities laws, including, without limitation, statements with respect to business strategy, development and commercialization plans, regulatory pathways, market opportunity, revenue expectations, physician adoption, and future performance.

Forward-looking statements are based on management’s current assumptions, expectations, and beliefs as of the date indicated in the relevant content and are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors, including material business, regulatory, clinical, scientific, financial, and market risks, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in such statements.

Forward-looking statements are provided for informational purposes only and do not constitute representations as to future performance, results, or achievements.

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Except as required by applicable law, the Company undertakes no obligation to update, revise, or publicly disclose any revisions to forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

All forward-looking statements contained on this website are expressly qualified in their entirety by the foregoing cautionary statements.

This website does not constitute, and shall not be construed as, investment, financial, legal, or other professional advice, or a recommendation to buy or sell any securities of the Company.

Additional information regarding risk factors, assumptions, and uncertainties is available in the Company’s public filings on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca), which should be reviewed in conjunction with the forward-looking statements contained on this website

5. Financial Information & Estimates Disclaimer

Any financial information presented on this website may be unaudited, based on management estimates, or derived from internal analyses.

Such information should be read in conjunction with the Company's financial statements, Management's Discussion and Analysis (MD&A), and other continuous disclosure documents filed by the Company on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca).

To the extent that this website presents non-IFRS and other specified financial measures, such measures are subject to applicable securities laws and should be considered only together with the definitions, explanations, and reconciliations provided in the Company's public disclosure documents.

No information on this website shall be regarded as a representation, undertaking, financial outlook, earnings forecast, or guarantee of future financial performance, unless expressly identified as such and accompanied by the required cautionary disclosure.

This website is provided for informational purposes only and does not constitute financial, investment, legal, or other professional advice. Readers should not rely on any financial information presented on this website for investment or other decision-making purposes

6. Third-Party Information Disclaimer

This website may reference information obtained from third-party sources, including, without limitation, scientific publications, industry reports, articles, and market data, which the Company believes to be reliable but does not represent or warrant as to their accuracy, completeness, currency, or applicability to any specific product, indication, target population, jurisdiction, or clinical setting.

The Company has not independently verified all third-party information and assumes no responsibility or liability for any reliance placed on such materials.

Any reference to third-party materials does not constitute adoption, endorsement, or approval of such materials by the Company and shall not be interpreted as evidence that such materials, in and of themselves, establish the safety, effectiveness, or regulatory status of any Company product.

7. No Investment, Legal, or Tax Advice

Nothing on this website constitutes or shall be construed as investment, legal, tax, regulatory, or accounting advice.

Any decision to invest in the Company, enter into any arrangement or transaction with it, or otherwise rely on information concerning it, should be made only after obtaining appropriate independent professional advice and based on the relevant formal documents and public filings of the Company, where applicable.

8. Website Use, Privacy & Communications

Communications with the Company via email or other electronic transmissions may not be secure, and the Company does not guarantee the confidentiality or integrity of such communications.

This website uses cookies and similar technologies. Information regarding data collection and processing is described in the Company's Privacy Policy.

This website is not a portal for reporting adverse events or product complaints. Communications through this website or via general electronic channels may not be an appropriate means for urgent medical communications, time-sensitive inquiries, product complaints, or the reporting of adverse events.

This website is not monitored for medical emergencies. In the event of a medical emergency, users should contact local emergency services and an appropriate healthcare professional without delay.

To report a product complaint, adverse event, serious incident, or other safety-related issue concerning the Company's products, users should utilize the Company's designated reporting channels, where available, or the applicable local regulatory reporting pathways.

This website and its disclaimers are provided in the English language. Where required by applicable law, specific product labeling and Instructions for Use (IFUs) may be made available in additional languages upon request.
